NEW DELIVERY PLAN IN OPERATION HERE

One Delivery a Day for Groceries, Two for Butchers.—All Food Dealers and Eating Houses Agree on Conservation of All Foods.

Following a meeting last week of grocers, butchers, bakers, and eating establishment people, a new delivery system is in operation in Durant this week.

The grocers unanimously agreed upon one delivery a day for the city. All orders taken up to noon will be delivered that afternoon; orders received in the afternoon will be delivered in the afternoon of the following day. There will be no variations from this rule.

Butchers agree to two deliveries a day. All orders received before 9 o'clock in the morning will be delivered between that hour and noon. Orders received after 9 in the morning and up to 5 o'clock in the afternoon will be delivered soon after 5 o'clock in the afternoon. Orders received after 5 in the afternoon will be delivered by noon of the following day. There will be no deviation from the rule under any circumstances. Butchers agree to remain closed and make no deliveries on Sunday under any conditions.

All bakers have agreed to close their places of business on meatless day (Tuesdays) and make no sales or deliveries.

A committee was appointed, consisting of five grocers and one butcher, to work out and plan a co-operative delivery system for the city. The bakers have agreed to neither bake nor sell any wheat bread or wheat product on wheatless day, as have the grocers. Substitute bread will be made and sold on that day.

Hotel and restaurant people expressed the intention of keeping all wheat bread off their menus on wheatless day, keeping all meat off the bill on meatless day, and pork from the bill on portless day. Hereafter, little if any effort has been made by the hotel and restaurant people along these lines.
